

PRESS RELEASE: April 1st, 2009. Teawolf, LLC moves to Pine Brook, NJ.

“Teawolf, LLC, a New Jersey-based food ingredient manufacturer and distributor of tea extracts, wolfberry products, vanilla, and other natural botanical extracts and ingredients announces the move of their corporate headquarters to Pine Brook, NJ. The larger size of the new 13,700 square-foot location will give the company the ability to strategically expand key manufacturing and laboratory capabilities. Additionally, the site’s location will allow improved visibility and access to key clients. “We have made significant investments in manufacturing equipment, analytical equipment, and people,” Teawolf President Greg Robertson said, “and this space will give us the opportunity to implement them all simultaneously.” Teawolf was formerly based in Clifton, NJ.
